NOTICE

Celebration of English Language Day

The Department of English is delighted to announce the celebration of English Language Day on 23rd April 2026. This occasion serves as a tribute to the linguistic heritage, literary richness and global impact of the English language. The day will be marked by a series of engaging activities, including a Special Lecture, a Student Seminar and Poetry Recitation.

We cordially invite our esteemed faculty members, non-teaching staff, alumni, and dear students to join us in this vibrant celebration of literature and language. Your presence and active participation will greatly contribute to making this event a grand success. Let us come together to celebrate the power of words.
